

Graduate CV checklist

Make your experience clear, relevant and honest.

Focus

- ☐ The CV is tailored to a specific role or type of opportunity.
- ☐ My most relevant evidence is easy to find.
- ☐ The opening section is specific rather than generic.
- ☐ I use language that reflects the role without copying claims.

Evidence

- ☐ I describe what I did, how I did it and the result where possible.
- ☐ I include relevant projects, part-time work and volunteering.
- ☐ Every achievement is accurate and can be discussed in an interview.
- ☐ Dates, job titles and qualifications are consistent.

Presentation

- ☐ Headings and spacing make the document easy to scan.
- ☐ Bullet points begin with clear action language.
- ☐ Formatting is consistent and works when exported to PDF.
- ☐ Contact details are current and professional.

Final checks

- ☐ I have checked spelling and grammar carefully.
- ☐ The file name includes my name and CV.
- ☐ I have removed sensitive or unnecessary personal information.
- ☐ I have tested every link and asked someone to review clarity.
